Bratwurst Festival Junior Princess Pageant Contest Rules & Regulations

1. Contestants must be a current resident of Buckeye Central, Bucyrus, Colonel Crawford, or Wynford School District, and must be between the ages of 7-8, as of August 1st, 2019.
2. Attendance is required at all meetings set by the Junior Princess Committee. If unable to attend a meeting, candidate must contact the Junior Princess Pageant advisor prior to the meeting.
3. Contestants may not be pregnant or have a child at any time during the pageant or as a member of the court. Conviction of a crime of moral turpitude will result in expulsion from the pageant.
4. Candidate's name and photograph will be publically displayed before, during, and after the festival in print, on our website, and on social media platforms.
5. On Thursday August 15, 2019, the contestants will participate in interviews, parade and pageant. The new junior princess and her court must be available the remainder of the 2019 festival.
6. If selected as junior princess or a member of the court, you and a parent/guardian must attend the orientation meeting held on the morning of Friday, August 16th to review and sign contracts.
7. Judging and selection of the junior princess and her court is based on personality, German costume, poise, appearance and conversational adeptness. Only contestants may attend the judges interview or enter any part of the judging area. All judges are from outside of Crawford County and the decisions of the judges are final. The pageant committee does not judge contestants in any way nor do they have access to the judges' tally sheets.
8. Contestants must have a German costume that will be worn throughout the interview and festival. The German costume must be traditional colors (Reds, Blacks, Blues, or Greens), including a white apron, white tights, and black flats. (See attachment A)
9. Cell phone use is prohibited during the day of the pageant. If contestants need to be contacted in the event of an emergency, the names and numbers of contacts will be given at the first meeting. Contestants can either leave their phone at home/in the car, or leave it with the Royalty Chairperson for the day.

Bratwurst Festival Junior Princess and Court Rules

The following information is included to inform you of some of the obligations required of the queen and court; this is not the contract. An official contract will be signed by the new Princess/Court and their parents on Friday morning following the Princess pageant.

1. During the Bratwurst Festival weekend, the junior princess and her court become solely dedicated to the festival for participation in all events. The Royalty Committee will assign members of the court to be certain places at certain times.
2. The junior princess and her court will reign at the Bratwurst Festival and all events representing the Bratwurst Festival in crown, sash, and German dress at all times unless approved by the festival committee/ board.
3. The junior princess and court's name and photograph will be publically displayed before, during, and after the festival in print, on our website, and on social media platforms.
4. All events traveled to must be approved by festival board. You may be expected to attend local community events as designated by the festival committee/ board.
5. The junior princess and court will be required to conduct themselves at all times in such a manner that will enhance themselves, the Bratwurst Festival, and the people of the Bucyrus community.
6. The junior princess and her court will not appear in person as Bratwurst Festival Royalty unless accompanied by a member of the Bratwurst Festival Royalty Committee, approved chaperone or her parents without the Bratwurst Festival Royalty Committee's prior approval.
7. The junior princess and court will be chaperoned by members of the Bratwurst Festival Board, Royalty Committee or chaperones and/or parents appointed and approved by the board. The princess and court will respect the judgement and abide by the rules of the chaperones.
8. Any breach of conduct, either observed by, or reported to the Royalty Committee by a reliable source, will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate dismissal from the court and forfeiture of the crown and title.
9. Pregnancy during her reign will result in forfeiture of crown and title.
10. If the junior princess is unable to fulfill her commitments for the year, she must relinquish her crown and title to the first runner-up. If the first runner-up is unable to fulfill commitments, she must step aside in favor of the second runner-up. If the second runner-up is unable to fulfill her commitments, that position will be left vacant.
11. The 2019 Bratwurst Festival Junior Princess and Court must attend the 2020 Bratwurst Festival opening ceremonies, junior princess pageant, and Royalty Luncheon to be held on Saturday of the 2020 Bratwurst Festival.
12. Contestants selected as the Bratwurst Festival Junior Princess and her court may not hold another pageant title (other than school titles) during her reign. The title of Bratwurst Festival Junior Princess may only be held once. A first runner up or second runner-up may compete again in the future, as long as they continue to meet the eligibility requirements.
13. During their reign, the junior princess and court will not be accompanied by friends or boyfriends while representing the Bratwurst Festival and City of Bucyrus.
